

San Francisco

Vol. VI

These photos were taken by Larry Stevens over a ten year period. This is part of a collection of 360 photos. This booklet was published in 2014.

Little Saigon

Mission

Yerba Buena

Museum of Modern Art

Sculpture Alley

Hunters Point Public Housing

Hunters Point Shipyard

Little Saigon

The Tenderloin is gradually changing to Little Saigon because of the influx of Vietnamese immigrants. This is a rough area. It is called the tenderloin because the police who patrolled the area were paid more and therefore could better cuts of meat. (January 2010)

Little Saigon

(January 2010)

Little Saigon

(January 2010)

Little Saigon

(January 2010)

Little Saigon

(January 2010)

Little Saigon

(January 2010)

Little Saigon

(January 2010)

Little Saigon

(January 2010)

Little Saigon

(January 2010)

Mission

Mission Dolores dates back to June 29, 1776. Slightly older than the American Revolution. (March 2004)

Mission

(March 2004)

Mission

(March 2004)

Mission

(March 2004)

Yerba Buena

(December 2008)

Yerba Buena

The Moscone Center was opened in 1981. It has grown to cover 900,000 square feet. It is named for the Mayor George Moscone who was assassinated in 1978. (December 2008)

Yerba Buena

(December 2008)

Yerba Buena

(December 2008)

Yerba Buena

(December 2008)

Yerba Buena

(December 2008)

Yerba Buena

(December 2008)

Yerba Buena

(December 2008)

Yerba Buena

(December 2008)

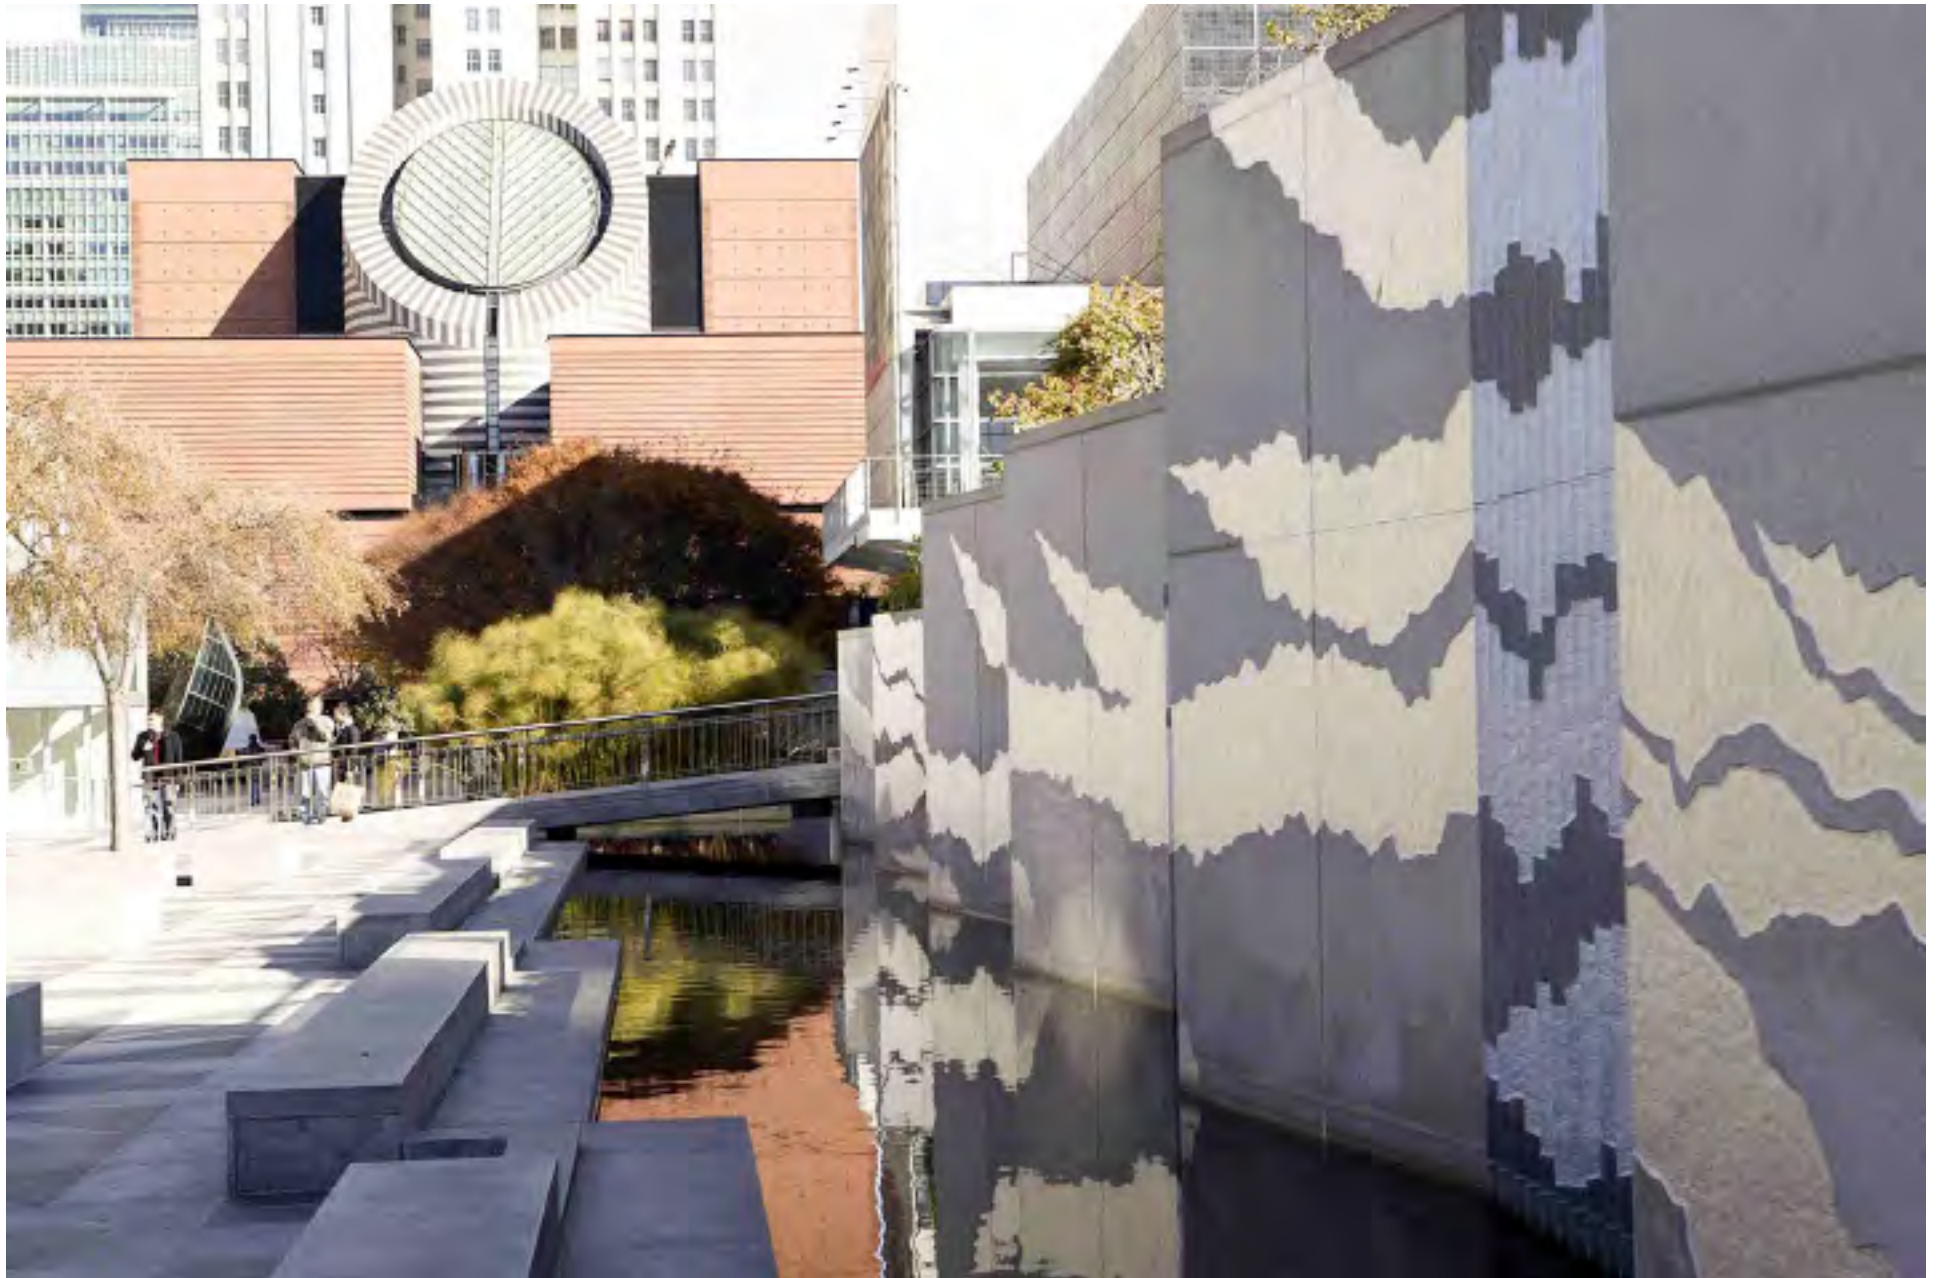

Yerba Buena

(December 2008)

Yerba Buena

(December 2008)

Museum of Modern Art

The museum began in 1935 in the War Memorial Auditorium. The new museum opened in 1995. It was designed by Mario Botte. It houses 26,000 works of modern 20th Century art. (December 2008)

Museum of Modern Art

(December 2008)

Museum of Modern Art

(December 2008)

Sculpture Alley

A block south of the museum is an alley filled with sculptures. (December 2008)

Sculpture Alley

(December 2008)

Sculpture Alley

(December 2008)

Hunters Point Public Housing

Hunters Point housing dates back to World War II when housing was needed for the shipyard workers. (March 2004)

Hunters Point Public Housing

(March 2004)

Hunters Point Public Housing

(March 2004)

Hunters Point Shipyard

(March 2004)

Hunters Point Shipyard

(March 2004)

Hunters Point Shipyard

You will find the head of this giant rocking horse across the street at an art studio. (March 2004)

Hunters Point Shipyard

(March 2004)

Hunters Point Shipyard

(March 2004)

Hunters Point Shipyard

(March 2004)

Hunters Point Shipyard

(March 2004)

Hunters Point Shipyard

(March 2004)

Port of San Francisco

(March 2004)

Hunters Point Shipyard

(March 2004)

Hunters Point Shipyard

The dry dock was built in 1914. It was once the largest in the world. The shipyards were opened in 1870 and the navy took them over after World War I. The yards were closed in 1994.

Bernal Heights

These murals face Precita Park on the side of Bernal Heights. (March 2004)

Bernal Heights

(March 2004)

Bernal Heights

Mt. Sutro as seen from the top of Bernal Heights.
(March 2004)

Bernal Heights

Downtown as seen from the top of Bernal Heights. (March 2004)

Potrero Hill

Potrero started as a working class community way back in the 1850's. During World War II shipyard workers moved in. During the 1960's artists began to settle here. In the 1990's dot.com companies began to locate here. (March 2004)

Potrero Hill

(March 2004)

Potrero Hill

(March 2004)

Potrero Hill

(March 2004)

Potrero Hill

(March 2004)

Potrero Hill

(March 2004)

Excelsior

Excelsior dates back to the 1860's. The streets are named after countries and capitals. Originally the settlers Italian and Swiss. Today it is Hispanic, Asian and Filipino. Jerry Garcia of the Grateful Dead is the most famous resident. (March 2004)

Excelsior

(March 2004)

Ingleside

(March 2004)

Ingleside

(March 2004)

Ingleside

(March 2004)

Harding Park

(March 2004)

Harding Park

Harding Park's golf course began construction in 1925.
(March 2004)

Sunset

Sunset began to develop in the early 1900's when Golden Gate Park developed. In 1927 a tunnel was built to connect the area with Market Street. Early settlers were Irish and Italian. Today Asians are the largest group. (March 2004)

Sunset

Construction on the zoo began in 1929. (March 2004)

Sunset – UC Medical School

The UC Med center is ranked by U.S. News and World Report as the 7th best in the country. (March 2004)

Sunset

The Sunset is known as the avenues. The north-south streets are numbered from 2nd to 48th. The east-west streets are named alphabetically beginning at Golden Gate Park. Irving and Tara-vall streets are main shopping streets. (March 2004)

Sunset

(March 2004)

Sunset

(March 2004)

Sunset

Irving is the main street of the outer Sunset. There is an Inner and Outer Sunset. The dividing line is 19th Avenue. (March 2004)

Sunset

The church is called St. Anne of the Sunset. It was built in 1931. (March 2004)

Cole Valley

Cole Valley is a little neighborhood south of the Haight.
(March 2004)

Cole Valley

(March 2004)

Cole Valley

(March 2004)

Haight

The Haight became famous in the 60's as the hangout for Hippies. (March 2004)

Haight

(March 2004)

Haight

(March 2004)

Castro

(March 2004)

Castro

Harvey Milk Plaza. Harvey Milk was the first gay elected official in San Francisco. He was assassinated in 1978 along with George Moscone, the mayor. The assassin Dan White was a former policeman. He committed suicide in 1985. (March 2004)

Castro

(March 2004)

Castro

(March 2004)

Castro

(March 2004)

Castro

(March 2004)

Noe Valley

(March 2004)

Noe Valley

(March 2004)

Noe Valley

(March 2004)

Mission

(May 2011)

Mission

(May 2011)

Mission

(May 2011)

Mission

(May 2011)

Mission

San Francisco has several big events. The Carneval held in the Mission in the Spring is one of them. (May 2011)

Mission

(May 2011)

Mission

(May 2011)

Mission

(May 2011)

