Clovis

Clovis now has a population of 97,000. It incorporated in 1912. At first it was a lumber community. It received timber from the mountains at the end of a 42-mile flume. Now the theme is cowboys. Clovis is famous for its rodeo. (March 2003)

Simonian Farms

This family farm dates back to 1901. It sells a variety of produce that they grow. (August 2003)

A photograph of the exterior of a building, likely a museum or antique shop, covered in numerous vintage signs and advertisements. The signs include major brands like Firestone, Mobil, Sinclair, Gulf, Texaco, and Shell. Other signs advertise products like Coca-Cola, Fisk tires, and various automotive services. The building has a wooden facade and a balcony with a white railing. A large sign on the right side of the building reads "SINCE 1904".
