

Los Angeles County

The Los Angeles Civic Center.
Part 4 of 25: San Gabriel Valley

Los Angeles County

© 2012 by Larry Stevens
stevens.lawrence@comcast.net

Pasadena
Mt. Wilson
Descanso Gardens
La Canada Flintridge
Occidental College

The Gamble House

This was designed by Greene & Greene, the creators of the California bungalow design. This was for a Procter & Gamble heir. It was completed in 1908. (May 2005)

Pasadena Old Town

(May 2005)

Pasadena Old Town

(May 2005)

Pasadena Old Town

(May 2005)

Pasadena Old Town

(May 2005)

The light rail

(May 2005)

Castle Green

(May 2005)

California Bungalow

This is next door to the Gamble House in Pasadena. I think it was a Quaker Meeting House. Not sure but a classic example of a California bungalow. (May 2005)

Ninth Circuit Court

The garden at the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals overlooking Arroyo Seco. (May 2005)

Ninth Circuit Court

This is the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals which is located in a former resort hotel. The bridge is the Colorado Street bridge going from Pasadena to Highland Park. (May 2005)

Castle Green

The Castle Green was built as a hotel in 1898. In the 1920's it was divided into condominiums. It is still that way today and is used for events. (May 2005)

Throop's School

Amos Throop founded Cal Tech in this building in 1891. It was originally a high tech vocational school. (May 2005)

Pasadena City College

It was founded in 1924 as one of California's 110 community colleges. It is famed for its academics. (May 2005)

Pasadena's Power Plant

Pasadena runs its own public power and water systems. (May 2005)

Rose Bowl

Presbyterian Church-Downtown

(June 2011)

Presbyterian Church-Downtown

(June 2011)

Presbyterian Church-Downtown

(June 2011)

Pasadena Museum of California Art

(June 2011)

Mural in downtown alley

(June 2011)

Mural in downtown alley

(June 2011)

Jackie and Mack Robinson

Jackie Robinson was from Pasadena. He integrated major league baseball. Mack Robinson was his brother and a 1936 Olympian. (May 2005)

City Hall

(June 2011)

City Hall

(June 2011)

City Hall

(May 2005)

Cal Tech

(May 2005)

(December 2002)

Mt. Wilson

(June 2011)

Mt. Wilson

To the upper right is downtown Los Angeles. (June 2011)

Mt. Wilson

The bright lights in the middle of the picture is I-10.
(June 2011)

Mt. Wilson

Mt. Wilson is 5,751 feet high. (May 2005)

Mt. Wilson

The 60 inch Hale microscope was constructed in 1908.
(May 2005)

Mt. Wilson

(May 2005)

Mt. Wilson

(May 2005)

Mt. Wilson

The solar telescope is one of three. (May 2005)

Mt. Wilson

Mt. Baldy as seen from Mt. Wilson. (May 2005)

Mt. Wilson

(May 2005)

Mt. Wilson

(May 2005)

Mt. Wilson

The road to Mt. Wilson Observatory.
(May 2005)

Mt. Wilson

(May 2005)

Mt. Wilson

Mt. Wilson

The 100 inch Hooker Telescope. It was the largest in the world from 1917 to 1948.
(May 2005)

Descanso Gardens

The Descanso Gardens was founded by E. Manchester Boddy in 1953. The 160 acre garden specializes in camellias. (May 2005)

Descanso Gardens

Descanso Gardens

Manchester Boddy's house. He was publisher of the Los Angeles News. (May 2005)

Descanso Gardens

Descanso Gardens

Descanso Gardens

Descanso Gardens

Descanso Gardens

Descanso Gardens

Descanso Gardens

Descanso Gardens

La Canada – Flintridge

La Canada–Flintridge has a population of 20,240. It is very expensive to live here. (May 2005)

La Canada – Flintridge

The Jet Propulsion Laboratory. This space exploration lab is administered by Cal Tech in Pasadena.

Bolton Hall-Tujunga

Bolton Hall was the community center of this community. This was a Little Landers Community where people could be self-sufficient on a small plot of land.

Occidental College

Occidental is a beautiful college campus in Eagle Rock . It was founded in 1887 and has only 2,123 students.

Occidental College

(May 2005)

Occidental College

(May 2005)

Occidental College

(May 2005)

Occidental College

(May 2005)

