These photos were taken on a June day in 2011. This was our second trip to the Arboretum. The first was in December 2002.

The Arboretum began in 1947. It has 127 acres of land. The first greenhouse was built in 1949. The Arboretum first opened to the public in 1956.

Lucky Baldwin brought the pea fowl to the rancho. These are the descendants.

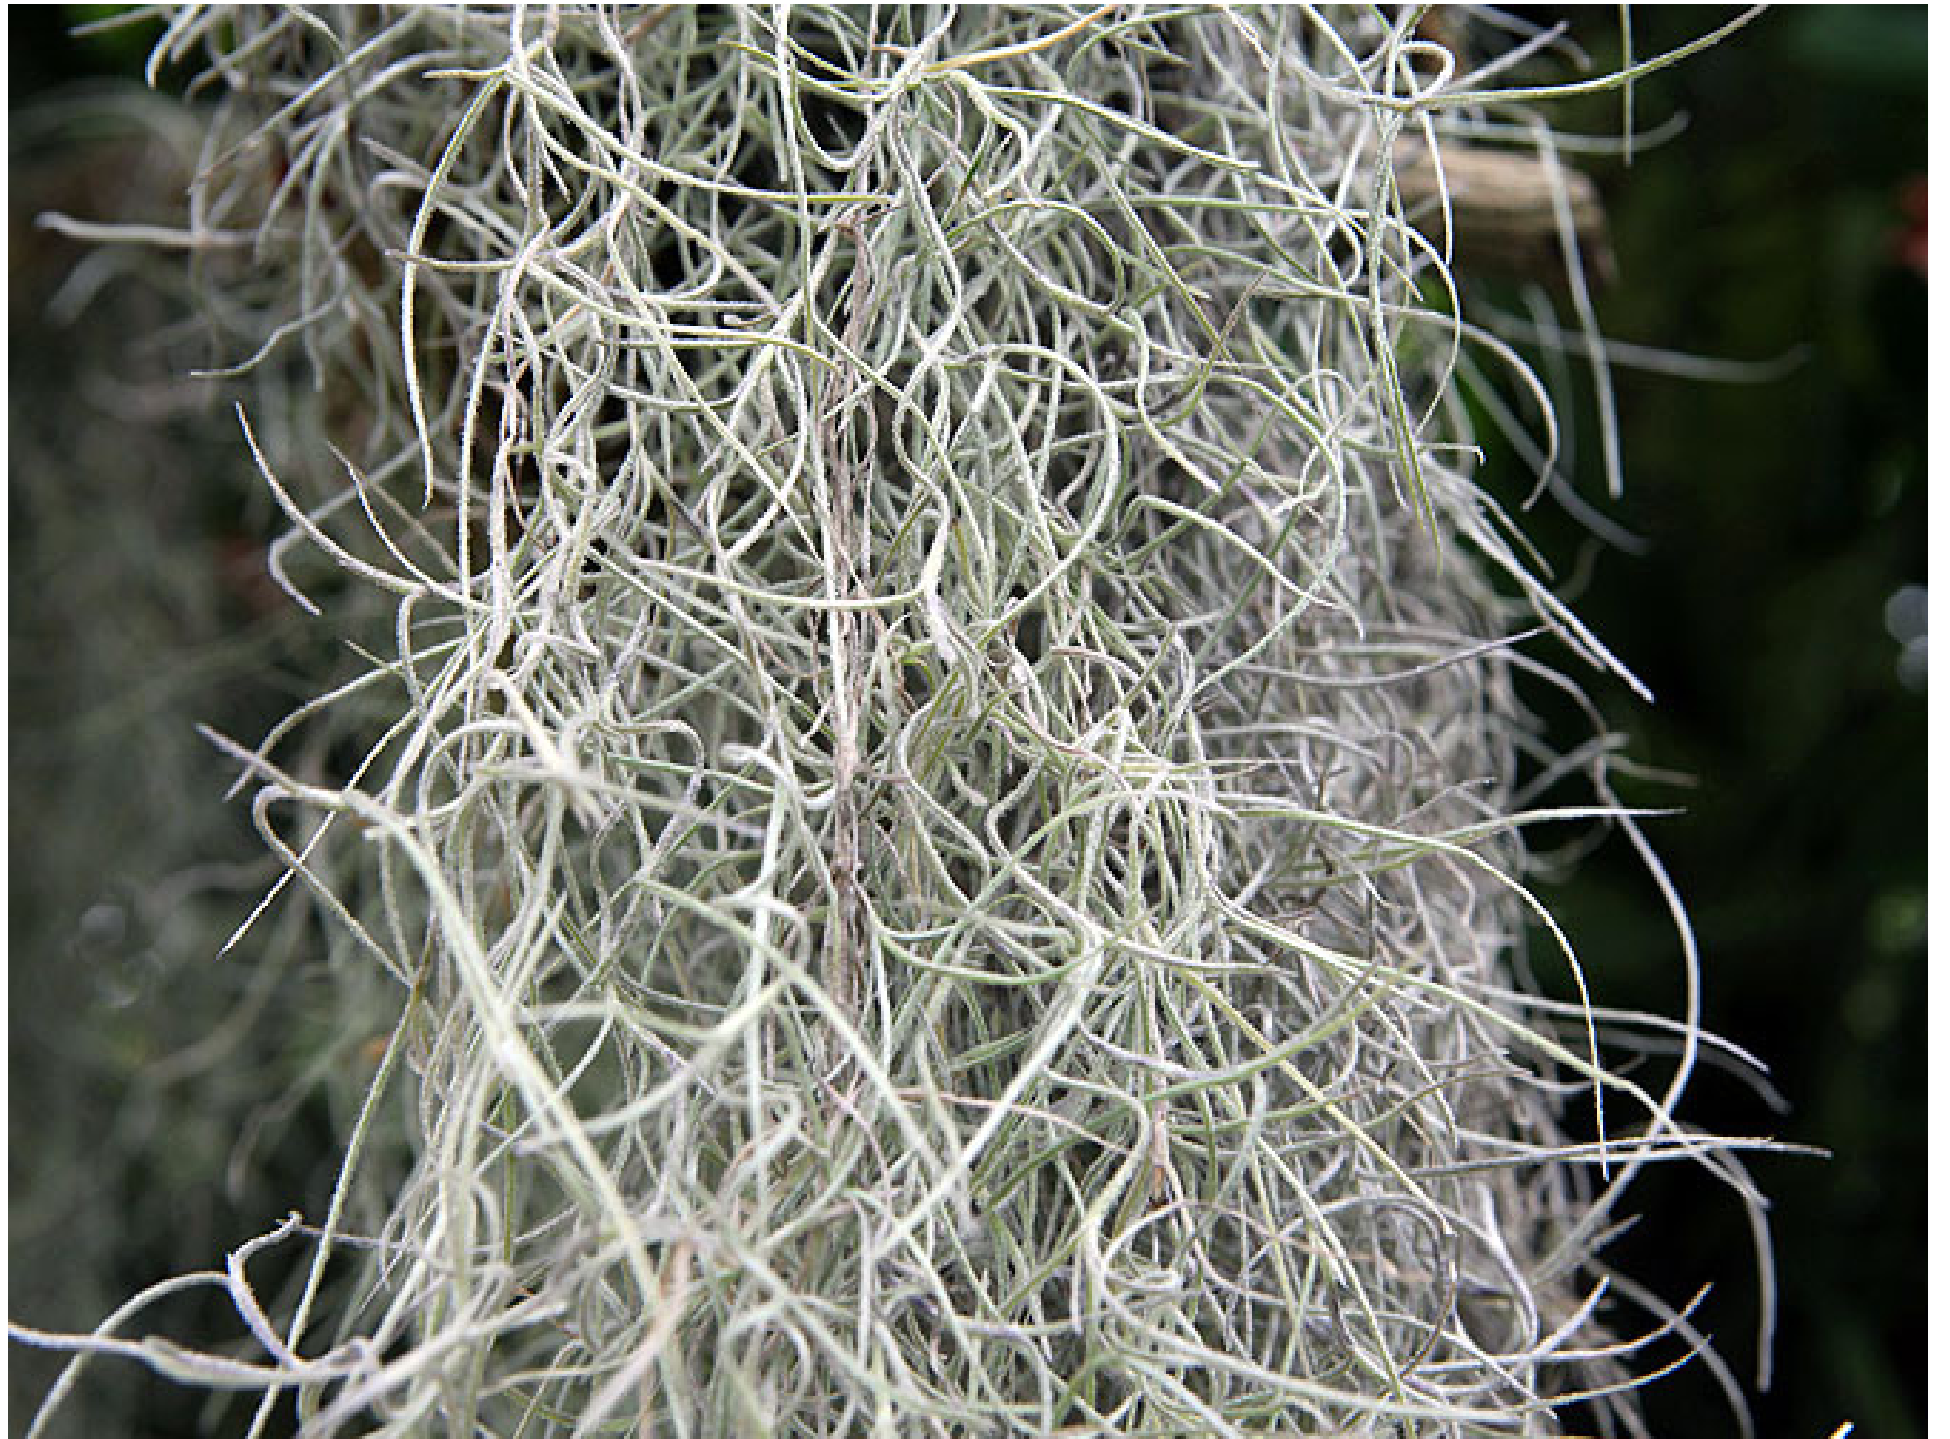

The tropical greenhouse has a collection of insect-eating plants.

Look carefully. Little pea fowl.
