

Marin County

The Marin County Courthouse in San Rafael.
Part 4 of 4: Mill Valley, Corte Madera, Lakespur, Kentfield, Ross,
San Anselmo, Fairfax.

Mill Valley

Mill Valley has a population of about 14,000. (June 2005)

Mill Valley

(June 2005)

Mill Valley

(June 2005)

Mill Valley

(June 2005)

Mill Valley

(June 2005)

Mill Valley

(June 2005)

Mill Valley

(June 2005)

Mill Valley

(June 2005)

Mill Valley

(June 2005)

Mill Valley

(June 2005)

Mill Valley

(June 2005)

Corte Madera

Corte Madera was founded in 1878. The city was incorporated in 1916. It has a population of about 9,400. (August 2003)

Corte Madera

(August 2003)

Corte Madera

(August 2003)

Corte Madera

(August 2003)

Corte Madera

All the towns along Sir Francis Drake Blvd. from Mill Valley up to Fairfax are pretty pricey. This is one of the ritziest counties in the state—no, the nation. In 2009 it had the fifth highest income in the nation. (August 2003)

Larkspur

Larkspur started in 1887. The post office was established 1891 and incorporated in 1908. (August 2003)

Larkspur

(August 2003)

Larkspur

(August 2003)

Larkspur

(August 2003)

Larkspur

(August 2003)

Larkspur

(August 2003)

Kentfield

(August 2003)

Kentfield

(August 2003)

Kentfield

Kentfield received its name 1905 when a post office was established. It has a population of 6,500. (August 2003)

Ross

Ross is an incorporated town with only 2,400 people. A post office was established here in 1887 and it was incorporated in 1908. (October 2005)

Ross

A Benny Bufano bear stands in front of the City Hall. (October 2005)

Ross

Ross' City Hall. (October 2005)

Ross

San Anselmo Creek. (October 2005)

Ross

(October 2005)

Ross

The village green in downtown Ross. (October 2005)

Ross

(October 2005)

Ross

Ross' Post Office. (October 2005)

Ross

(October 2005)

Ross

(October 2005)

Ross

Ross's downtown. (October 2005)

Ross

(October 2005)

San Anselmo

The San Anselmo post office was established in 1892. Today's population is 12,336.(August 2003)

San Anselmo

(August 2003)

San Anselmo

(August 2003)

San Anselmo

(August 2003)

San Anselmo

San Francisco Theological Seminary. (August 2003)

Sir Francis Drake Blvd.

(August 2003)

San Anselmo

(August 2003)

San Anselmo

(August 2003)

San Anselmo

(August 2003)

Fairfax

Fairfax had a post office in 1910 and became a city in 1931. (August 2003)

Fairfax

(August 2003)

Fairfax

(August 2003)

Fairfax

(August 2003)

Fairfax

(August 2003)

Fairfax

(August 2003)

