

Mendocino County

The Mendocino County Courthouse in Ukiah.
Part 3 of 3: Hopland, Ukiah, Buddhist Temple,
Willits, Potter Valley.

Hopland

(August 2003)

Ukiah

Ukiah was founded in 1856. The city incorporated in 1876. The town was connected to the rail-road in 1889. (May 2007)

Ukiah

(May 2007)

Ukiah

(May 2007)

Ukiah

(May 2007)

Ukiah

(May 2007)

Ukiah

(May 2007)

Ukiah

(May 2007)

Ukiah

(May 2007)

Ukiah

(May 2007)

Ukiah

(May 2007)

Ukiah

(May 2007)

Ukiah

(May 2007)

City of 10000 Buddhas

This Buddhist complex which includes an elementary and high school and a university. It is located in a former state hospital. It is just east of Ukiah. (May 2010)

City of 10000 Buddhas

(May 2010)

City of 10000 Buddhas

(May 2010)

(May 2010)

City of 10000 Buddhas

(May 2010)

City of 10000 Buddhas

(May 2010)

City of 10000 Buddhas

(May 2010)

City of 10000 Buddhas

(May 2010)

City of 10000 Buddhas

(May 2010)

City of 10000 Buddhas

(May 2010)

Willits

(April 2002)

Willits

(April 2002)

Willits is named for Hiram Willits who founded the community in 1857. It was originally named Little Lakes. The name was changed to Willits in 1874.

Willits

(April 2002)

Willits

(April 2002)

Willits

(April 2002)

Willits

(May 2007)

Willits

(May 2007)

Willits

(May 2007)

Willits

(May 2007)

Willits

(July 2003)

Willits

(May 2007)

Potter Valley

The Spotswood House in Potter Valley was built in 1887. Potter Valley is just north of Clear Lake, (May 2007)

Potter Valley

William and Thomas Potter first visited the valley in 1852. A post office was established in 1870. (May 2007)

Potter Valley

(May 2007)

Potter Valley

(May 2007)

Potter Valley

(May 2007)

Potter Valley

(May 2007)

Potter Valley

(May 2007)

Potter Valley

(May 2007)

Potter Valley

(May 2007)

Potter Valley

(May 2007)

Potter Valley

(May 2007)

Potter Valley

(May 2007)

Potter Valley

(May 2007)

Potter Valley

(May 2007)

Potter Valley

(May 2007)

Potter Valley

(May 2007)

Potter Valley

(May 2007)

Potter Valley

(May 2007)

