

Monterey County

The Monterey County Courthouse in Salinas.
Part 2 of 5: Soledad Mission, Soledad, Greenfield, Mission
San Antonio, King City, San Lucas, San Ardo, Bradley.

Monterey County

© 2012 by Larry Stevens
stevens.lawrence@comcast.net

Soledad Mission

Soledad Mission

(April 2002)

Soledad Mission

(April 2002)

Soledad Mission

(April 2002)

Soledad Mission

Soledad Mission

Soledad Mission

The walls of the original mission. (April 2002)

Soledad

The population is 25,700. The first post office was established in 1869. The city incorporated in 1921. There is a nearby mission which dates back to 1791. A prison was built here in 1946. (April 2004)

Soledad

(April 2004)

Soledad

(April 2004)

Soledad

(April 2004)

Soledad

(April 2004)

Soledad

(April 2004)

Soledad

(April 2004)

Greenfield

(March 2004)

Greenfield

The town was laid out in 1902 as part of an agricultural irrigation development. It was incorporated in 1947. Its population is 16,330. (March 2004)

Greenfield

(March 2004)

Greenfield

(March 2004)

Greenfield

(March 2004)

Greenfield

The City Hall. (March 2004)

Mission San Antonio

(May 2002)

Mission San Antonio

(May 2002)

Mission San Antonio

(May 2002)

Mission San Antonio

(May 2002)

Mission San Antonio

Mission San Antonio

(May 2002)

Mission San Antonio

Mission San Antonio

(May 2002)

Mission San Antonio

(May 2002)

Mission San Antonio

(May 2002)

Mission San Antonio

(May 2002)

Mission San Antonio

Mission San Antonio

(May 2002)

Mission San Antonio

(May 2002)

King City

The City Hall. The city incorporated in 1911 after being founded when the railroad arrived in 1886. (March 2004)

King City

(March 2004)

King City

(March 2004)

King City

(March 2004)

King City

(March 2004)

King City

(March 2004)

King City

The high school auditorium was built in 1939 in the WPA Moderne style. It was built with WPA funds. It was designed by Harry Stanton of Carmel. The bas relief was done by Joseph Mora. It is on the National Register of Historic Places. (March 2004)

King City

King City

(March 2004)

San Lucas

San Lucas was established in 1886 when the railroad arrived. A post office was established in 1887. Today the population is 270. (May 2008)

San Lucas

(May 2008)

San Lucas

(May 2008)

San Lucas

(May 2008)

San Lucas

(May 2008)

San Lucas

(May 2008)

San Lucas

San Lucas

San Ardo

San Ardo was established in 1887 when the railroad arrived. Originally it was called San Bernardo. There is a large oil field just south of town. (May 2008)

San Ardo

(May 2008)

San Ardo

(May 2008)

San Ardo

(May 2008)

San Ardo

(May 2008)

San Ardo

(May 2008)

San Ardo

(May 2008)

San Ardo

(May 2008)

San Ardo

(May 2008)

San Ardo

(May 2008)

San Ardo

San Ardo

(May 2008)

San Ardo

San Ardo

(May 2008)

San Ardo

(May 2008)

Bradley

One has to cross the Salinas River to get into Bradley.
Only 93 people live here. It was established in 1886
when the railroad arrived. (May 2008)

Bradley

(May 2008)

Bradley

(May 2008)

Bradley

(May 2008)

Bradley

(May 2008)

Bradley

(May 2008)

