

Monterey County

The Monterey County Courthouse in Salinas.
Part 5 of 5: Old Monterey, Cannery Row, Bay Aquarium, Pacific Grove, Wharf.

Monterey County

© 2012 by Larry Stevens
stevens.lawrence@comcast.net

Cannery Row

(April 2002)

Cannery Row

(April 2002)

Cannery Row

Monterey was established in 1770 and was the capital of California during the Spanish-Mexican period. (April 2002)

Old Monterey

(April 2002

Colton House

This is the place where California's state constitution was written.
(April 2002)

Colton Hall

(April 2002)

Customs House

(April 2002)

Old Monterey

April 2002

Old Monterey

(April 2002)

Old Monterey

(April 2002

Old Monterey

April 2002

Old Monterey

April 2007

Old Monterey

(April 2002)

Old Monterey

(April 2002

Old Monterey

(April 2002)

Old Monterey

(April 2002)

(April 2002

Monterey

(April 2002)

Monterey

(April 2002)

Old Monterey

(April 2002)

Old Monterey

(April 2002)

Devil's Garden

(April 2002)

Monterey Wharf

(September 2009)

Monterey Wharf

(September 2009)

Monterey Wharf

(September 2009)

Monterey Wharf

(September 2009)

Monterey Wharf

(September 2009)

Monterey Wharf

(September 2009)

Monterey Bay Aquarium

The aquarium was founded in 1984. It contains 35,000 animals of 623 species. (September 2009)

Monterey Bay Aquarium

(September 2009)

Monterey Bay Aquarium

(September 2009)

Monterey Bay Aquarium

(September 2009)

Pacific Grove

The town was founded in 1875 by Methodists. It became a city in 1889. Today it has a population of 15,000. (March 2004)

Pacific Grove

(March 2004)

Pacific Grove

(March 2004)

Pacific Grove

(March 2004)

Pacific Grove

(March 2004)

Pacific Grove

(March 2004)

Pacific Grove

(March 2004)

Pacific Grove

(March 2004)

Pacific Grove

(March 2004)

Pacific Grove

(March 2004)

Pacific Grove

(March 2004)

