

Orange County

The courthouse in Santa Ana.

Part 3 of 4: Seal Beach, Los Alamitos, Huntington Beach, Balboa, Costa Mesa, Newport Beach.

Orange County

© 2012 by Larry Stevens
stevens.lawrence@comcast.net

Seal Beach

The town was incorporated in 1915. It has a population of 24,000. It is the home of the naval munitions supply depot for the Pacific fleet. (December 2003)

Seal Beach

(December2003)

Seal Beach

(December 2003)

Seal Beach

(December 2003)

Seal Beach

(December 2003)

Seal Beach

(December 2003)

Seal Beach

(December 2009)

Seal Beach

(December 2009)

Seal Beach

(December 2009)

Seal Beach

(December 2009)

Seal Beach

(December 2009)

Seal Beach

(December 2009)

Seal Beach

(December 2009)

Los Alamitos

Los Alamitos

The population is about 11,000. It has been a city since 1960. It is the location of a military air base. (December 2009)

Los Alamitos

(December 2009)

Los Alamitos

(December 2009)

Huntington Beach

Huntington Beach became a city in 1909 and now has a population of 190,000. (July 2004)

Huntington Beach

Huntington Beach had trouble getting going. It was bit too far from Los Angeles. It took off when oil was discovered. The local high school nickname is the Oilers. Bakersfield High teams are called the Drillers. (July 2004)

Huntington Beach

(July 2004)

Huntington Beach

(July 2004)

Huntington Beach

(July 2004)

Huntington Beach

(July 2004)

Huntington Beach

(July 2004)

Huntington Beach

(July 2004)

Huntington Beach

(July 2004)

Huntington Beach

Surfing is particularly good because of the influence of Catalina Island upon the waves. (July 2004)

Costa Mesa

(July 2004)

Costa Mesa

(July 2004)

Balboa

(July 2004)

Balboa

(July 2004)

Balboa

(July 2004)

Balboa

(July 2004)

Balboa

(July 2004)

Newport Beach

(July 2004)

Newport Beach

(July 2004)

Newport Beach

(July 2004)

Newport Beach

(July 2004)

Laguna Beach

The community started in 1887. It incorporated as a city in 1927. It is famed as an artist colony. Today's population is 23,000. (July 2004)

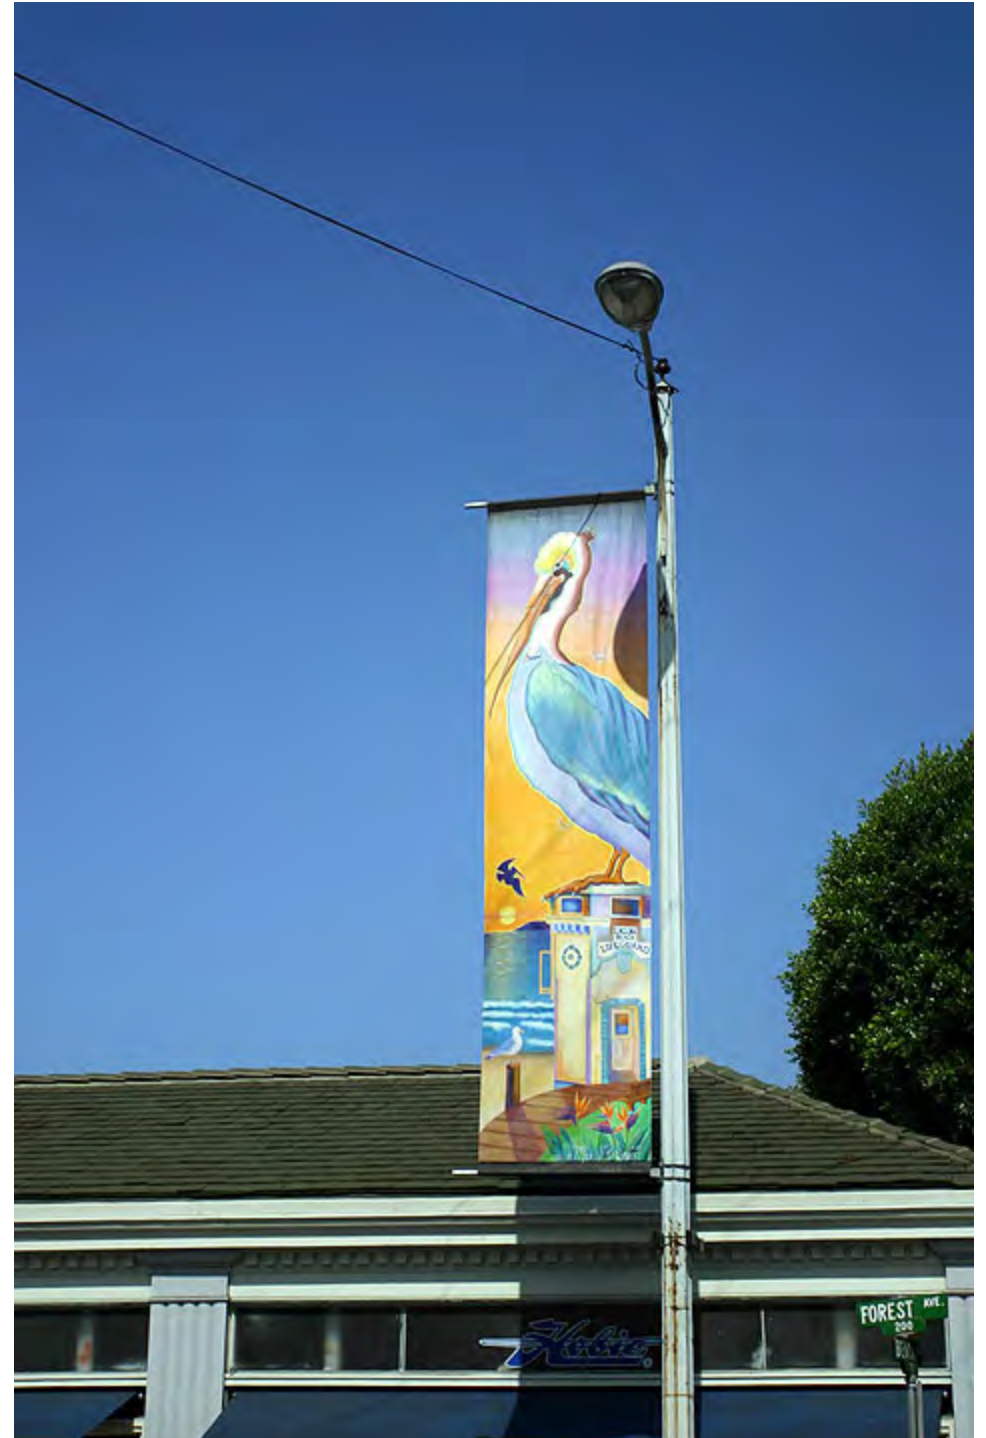

Laguna Beach

(July 2004)

Laguna Beach

(July 2004)

Laguna Beach

(July 2004)

Laguna Beach

(July 2004)

Laguna Beach

(July 2004)

Laguna Beach

(July 2004)

Laguna Beach

(July 2004)

Laguna Beach

(July 2004)

Laguna Beach

(July 2004)

Laguna Beach

(July 2004)

Dana Point

Dana Point began as a development in 1926. It incorporated as a city in 1989. The population is 33,000. (July 2004)

Dana Point

(July 2004)

Dana Point

(July 2004)

Dana Point

(July 2004)

Dana Point

(July 2004)

Dana Point

(July 2004)

Dana Point

(July 2004)

San Clemente

(July 2004)

San Clemente

(July 2004)

San Clemente

(July 2004)

San Clemente

(July 2004)

San Clemente

(July 2004)

San Clemente

(July 2004)

San Juan Capistrano

(July 2004)

San Juan Capistrano

(July 2004)

San Juan Capistrano

(July 2004)

San Juan Capistrano

(July 2004)

San Juan Capistrano

(February 2008)

