Riverside County

The old County Courthouse in Riverside.
Part 6 of 9: Indio

Riverside County

© 2012 by Larry Stevens
stevens.lawrence@comcast.net

Indio

The population is rapidly growing and has reached 76,000. The appearance of the downtown has improved with landscaping and murals. (April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

Indio was on old historic Highway 99. There are many old motels along this route. (April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

Indio's city hall. The city was started when the railroad arrived in 1875. It became incorporated in 1930. The current population is 76,000. (April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

The county fairgrounds has a Middle Eastern theme because the area is a date growing area. (April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

Many murals have been added to the community. Most of them honor the city's history. (April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

The government established a date growing station here in 1907. (April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)

Indio

(April 2009)