

Yolo County

The Yolo County Courthouse in Woodland. (2002)
Part 2 of 2 parts: West Sacramento, Yolo Bypass, UC
Davis, Davis, Winters, Clarksburg

West Sacramento

(June 2002)

West Sacramento

(June 2002)

West Sacramento

The new State Teachers Retirement System building in West Sacramento. (2010)

West Sacramento

(June 2002)

West Sacramento

(February 2009)

West Sacramento

(February 2009)

West Sacramento

(February 2009)

West Sacramento

The entrance to the Port of Sacramento.
(February 2009)

West Sacramento

West Capitol Ave. was the old entrance to Sacramento. Motels lined the street. The most famous was the El Rancho. It is now a Buddhist temple. (February 2009)

West Sacramento

(June 2002)

West Sacramento

(2009)

The Delta Queen. This boat plied the Sacramento River travelling to San Francisco. The boat was built in Stockton in 1928. (June 2002)

West Sacramento

West Sacramento

Sacramento as viewed from Yolo County

West Sacramento

Yolo Bypass

The Yolo Bypass filled by spring flood waters. (April 2006)

Yolo Bypass

(April 2006)

Yolo Bypass

(April 2006)

Yolo Bypass

The red on the water is an aquatic fern that turns red in cold weather. It floats with a single root dipping into the water. (April 2006)

Yolo Bypass

(April 2006)

Yolo Bypass

(April 2006)

Davis

Davis

(April 2003)

Davis
(April 2003)

University of California at Davis

(April 2003)

University of California at Davis

University of California at Davis

University of California at Davis

The Mondavi Center
under construction.
(April 2003)

University of California at Davis

University of California at Davis

University of California at Davis

Aside from being a great university noted for its agricultural research there are three features that stand out—the Mondavi Center which has become a regional performing arts center, the Botanical Garden which stretches along Putah Creek and the campus art work some of it done by the sculptor Robert Arneson.

University of California at Davis

University of California at Davis

University of California at Davis

University of California at Davis

University of California at Davis

University of California at Davis

Davis

An aerial view of Davis and the University. (2010)

Winters

Winters

Winters is a farm town west of Davis. It is most famous for its restaurants—the Buckthorn and Putah Creek.
(September 2002)

Winters

September 2002)

Clarksburg

The largest building in Clarksburg is the old sugar mill which closed operations in the 1980's. It has now been refurbished to sell wines produced by local vintners.

Clarksburg

Clarksburg

Clarksburg

Clarksburg

Clarksburg

Clarksburg

Saramento Deep Water Channel

The channel that carries ships from San Francisco Bay to the Port of Sacramento. Mostly rice is shipped from this port. (2010)

